

The Calexico Arts Council in collaboration with the Calexico Arts Commission is proud to present the Still Life exhibit of

Armando Ahuatzi

Born in Tlaxcala, he paints Mexico in a style sometimes reminiscent of Renaissance paintings; frequently they look like paintings of the 17th century, although with an entirely different intent.

Ahuatzi's themes are the traditional scenes of Mexico, patios with bougainvilleas, haciendas, landscapes, bullfights and more, with exquisite details in oils.

His paintings have been exhibited in galleries in London, New York, Spain, Switzerland, France, Costa Rica and Mexico.
